JOHN C. BREAM RENAMED HEAD OF LOAN GROUP

Members of the Adams County National Farm Loan association, which has federal loans totaling approximately $1,250,000 in force in Adams county, held their annual meeting this morning at the court house with speeches, reports and the election of directors filling the program. John C. Bream, Gettysburg R. D., president of the county unit, presided.

Mr. Bream was re-elected as a director during the business session this morning and at the annual organization meeting of the directors, held immediately after the general session, he was named president for another year. Martin Walters, Biglerville, was elected as a new member of the board. He and Mr. Bream will serve three-year terms.

C. Baker Bernhart, secretary-treasurer of the York group of farm loan associations, which includes the Adams county organization, presented the annual financial reports for the county unit and disclosed that total loans from the Federal Land bank distributed in this county during the last year showed a net increase of about $25,000.

Corn Borer Control
Principal speaker this morning was the Adams county farm agent, M. T. Hartman, who discussed the "European Corn Borer" stressing its importance in cutting corn yields and also listed control measures.

He said the borer appeared first in Massachusetts in 1917 and has spread steadily since that time until the entire state of Pennsylvania is included in the infested area and every farm in the county has seen the work of the pest. Two broods of borers appear each year, Hartman said, the first affecting sweet corn and the second striking the field corn.

The county agent exhibited infested stalks of corn and a borer. He recommended that field corn be cut close to the ground and cut early, suggesting that corn harvesters be used and that infested corn could be placed safely in a silo. Fodder not placed in the silo should be shredded. Fall plowing of the corn stubbles was recommended and other methods were indicated for reducing the spread of the borer. He emphasized the importance of plowing corn stubble ground before May 1.

Motion Pictures Shown
The group was shown two reels of motion pictures, one titled "The Farmers' Wife," and the other had to do with the prevention of fires as a means of conserving resources. The pictures were shown by Maurice H. Rishel from the York office of the Production Credit association.

Before adjournment it was announced that Production Credit and National Farm Loan agencies are working in close cooperation in this area and that an office may soon be opened in Gettysburg on a 6-day basis. Under the present plan Mr. Bernhart spends one day a week in Gettysburg.

The Adams County National Farm Loan association was organized in 1919 to enable farmers in this county to obtain federal land bank loans to fit their needs. Now both long and short term loans are handled.

INN KEEPERS DISCUSS PLANS FOR RATIONING

Impending rationing of food in hotels was discussed at a regional conference of Adams, York and Franklin county hotelmen, members of the Pennsylvania Hotels association, held at Hotel Gettysburg, Tuesday afternoon.

The conference was called by Edmund L. Flynn, executive secretary of the state association, and is one of a series Mr. Flynn is holding with member hotels all over the state to discuss and explain the principles of food rationing.

While no announcement has yet been made by the government as to the effective date of food rationing, Mr. Flynn stated that several conferences between committees of the American Hotel association and government officials have been held at which the basic principles of the plan have been determined. While rationing will involve restrictions on certain foods, there will be ample allotments if care is exercised, it was stated.

Use December Basis
Hotels were directed to keep careful count of the number of meals served and the quantity of foods, measured in pounds, that were consumed in December. This will serve as the basis for future allotments with allowances, more or less, in accordance with increase or decrease in number of meals served, Mr. Flynn explained.

Rationing will be on the point system, he stated, but nothing is known yet as to the respective point values of different items of foods.

A day or two before the effective date, hotels will be required to in-

Suzanne Sten Pleases In Concert Tuesday Evening

Suzanne Sten started her enjoyable concert in Brua chapel Tuesday evening, the second of the series of three concerts of the 1942-43 season of the Gettysburg Concert association, with an inspiring rendition of the National Anthem. While this procedure is not new to Gettysburg audiences, Miss Sten's announcement immediately upon taking the center of the stage, "ladies and gentlemen, our National Anthem," won her audience immediately because it carried the love for and faith in America, and the appreciation of American freedom that the artist so genuinely feels.

Foreign born and foreign schooled, that Miss Sten's American citizenship is her most prized possession was clearly demonstrated in her singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." The petite, winsome artist, with no apparent effort, conveyed

Show-Down Battle Is Shaping Up

By ROGER GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Britain's victorious 8th Army was officially reported to have started a new advance into Tunisia today, breaking a protracted lull, and at the same time the German-controlled Vichy radio asserted that Axis Tunisian forces had launched an attack against the British.

The Vichy broadcast said the Axis assault was made to forestall a British offensive.

First word of the British advance came from Gen. Sir Harold R. L. G. Alexander, British commander in chief in the Middle East, who told newsmen:

"The enemy's forces have been completely eliminated from Egypt, Cirenaica, Libya and Tripolitania — and the Eighth Army is advancing."

New Offensive
For several days, Axis quarters have reported that Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's armies were massing troops, tanks, big guns and other equipment along the Libyan-Tunisian frontier for a new offensive.

Advance 8th Army troops were reported to have thrust 60 miles across the border several days ago.

Vichy's report of an Axis counter-attack indicated that Col.-Gen. Jurgen Von Arnim's Tunisian forces may have reinforced Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's battered divisions and turned on the British 8th army somewhere in the vicinity of the Mareth line, 60 miles inside Tunisia.

U. S. Fliers Active
Lieut.-Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters reported that a new combination of U. S. Airacobras and American-flown Spitfires raked Axis forces on the southern Tunisian front with cannon and machine-gun fire, while U. S. Flying Fortresses blasted the German air base near Kairouan.

An Italian communication said the raiders inflicted many casualties at Kairouan and asserted that 16 Allied planes were shot down by German fighters.

Other Allied fliers pounded the important port of Palermo, in Sicily, and attacked the Calabrian coast on the southern tip of Italy.

Here And There News Collected At Random

Get your screen doors and window screens in shape . . . plug up your keyholes . . . put in a supply of mosquito netting and that stuff you squirt all over the house and BE PREPARED because the invading horde of stinging mosquitoes will bear down on Gettysburg again this spring and summer.

The little devils are marshaling their forces, sharpening their stingers and oiling their buzzing sirens because the news has leaked out that Gettysburg will not attempt to defend the town against the massed invasion by the little pests.

You've guessed it!
Gettysburg's town council has again neglected to provide funds in the current budget for a mosquito eradication project. So you know what that means! They're coming back . . . not the Nazis, the Nips or Mussolini's legions . . . we could take care of those ginks . . . it's the Army of Mosquitoes . . . those devilish little pests that keep you off your porch, out of your yard . . . keep you barricaded indoors and just won't let you sleep.

Some members of council discussed a mosquito project but it was passed up in the budget because . . . because . . . well, as one town official quoted a councilman: "They've got mosquitoes in Guadalcanal so I guess we can deal 'em."

Before you can be issued Ration Book No. 2 you'll have to take a "Pantry Census" to ascertain how many cans of food you have. The government wants that information. Now don't be alarmed. It's simple. Here's how:

Go to your pantry and set aside all the canned goods you have on hand of less than eight ounces per can. These don't count.

Then set aside five cans for each member of your family. You see, each member is allowed five cans on hand.

Then count the remainder of the cans. That's the amount you have to report on the inventory sheet you will be given when you register for the new ration book.

The canned (tin or glass) foods you have to report include fruits (including spiced fruits) and vegetables, canned fruit and vegetable juices, all canned soups, chili sauce and catsup.

One eight-point stamp will be removed from your new ration book for every extra can of canned goods you have reported. Not more than 24 eight-point stamps may be removed from the book, however. All in excess of the 24 eight-point stamps will be noted on the cover of your ration book.

W. C. STORRICK ON AIR SUNDAY

William C. Storrick, West Lincoln avenue, 86-year-old historian, has been invited to return to the "We The People" radio broadcast Sunday evening to tell his story of "When I Saw and Heard Lincoln." This will be the third visit of Mr. Storrick to the broadcast. His first occasion was on a November 19th broadcast, two years ago.

Mr. Storrick recalls the historic occasion when Abraham Lincoln dedicated the Gettysburg National cemetery and delivered his immortal address "Four Score and Seven years ago . . ." on November 19, 1863.

Last year Mr. Storrick was a guest on the "We The People" broadcast and told interesting things about the historic event here in 1863. He has been invited to return to the program again this year and will be heard over WABC, Columbia Broadcasting System, at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night.

Mr. Storrick, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Nina Storrick, will leave for New York Saturday to attend a rehearsal of the broadcast.

Adolf Hitler Mittel's Papa Wants New Name For Baby

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—Adolf Hitler Mittel's papa, Joseph, admits his 18-day-old son is behind the eight ball with a name like that and says that since the public has raised such shocked objection to the name it's up to the people of the nation to pick another.

"I certainly don't want to hurt the little guy's future," he said last night as he held little A. H. in his arms in their small flat in Astoria, Queens. "Judging from the riding the papers and the public are giving us, the only thing to do is to find him another name."

He explained that "the whole thing started as a joke. Before the baby was born, I bet my wife that she would have triplets and that if she didn't I'd name the baby Adolf Hitler. And I did. The name has noth-

Red Armies Clamp Ring Around Foe

Moscow, Feb. 10 (AP)—Strong Russian Army forces are pouring through the Belgorod gap in German defenses north of Kharkov, the only point on a 200-mile front where the invaders still hold the line from which they launched their 1942 offensive, battlefront dispatches reported today.

The great upper Donets industrial city which the Germans have held since October, 1941, thus was menaced by a tightening semi-circle of assault with the Red Army roughly 40 miles from its limits to the north, east and south.

At the same time the Russians announced the repulse of desperate enemy counterattacks against a second semi-circle closing upon Rostov, and against the Kramatorsk wedge to the northwest which, if carried south toward the Sea of Azov, might pinch off the whole Rostov defense force.

Strong Resistance
The Russians reported their greatest gains in the snow-piled chalk hill country between Kharkov and Orel where the stronghold of Kursk and the important rail junction of Belgorod fell in 48 hours of whirlwind assault.

Below Kharkov, Russian troops trying to drive southward around the Donets basin to the Sea of Azov met determined German resistance, and the Soviet columns closing in on Rostov were fighting off bitter German tank unit counterattacks, it was reported.

(In London the Russian midday communique as recorded by the Soviet radio Monitor said the Red Army has smashed into a number of towns in the upper part of the Donets basin, killing 1,200 Germans and knocking out more than 30 tanks.)

(Acknowledging fierce German resistance in the Kramatorsk area, where the Russians shaped a southward push to circle the Donets coal basin and Rostov areas, the Russians said German reserves were beaten in the struggle and Axis ammunition dumps were blown up.)

Strategic Kharkov
The newest Russian gains came on the eve of the 25th anniversary of the formal Russian withdrawal from the war with Germany in 1918. It was generally regarded that the fall of Kharkov would deprive the Germans of any sizable communications center until they could fall back on Kiev and set up a defense line behind the Dnieper river.

The Russians announced the recapture of Belgorod, 50 miles northwest of Kharkov, and of Shebekino, only 40 miles to the northwest of Kharkov's city limits, in a special communique.

Another Russian column was reported advancing on Kharkov from the east, pushing from Valuiiki and Urazova, which have been in Russian hands for nearly two weeks.

The third attack shaping on Kharkov threatened to come from Balakleya, 40 miles southeast, where a Russian communication early today said that a number of populated places were occupied in new advances.

The army that had taken Kursk, meantime, expanded its gains with the announced recapture of Poniri, 42 miles north of Kursk on the railway to Orel, and Solntsevo, 30 miles south of Kursk. A huge amount of war equipment also was reported taken in this area.

GUADALCANAL ADDS GLORY TO WAR TRADITIONS

By GLENN BABE

The exultation natural to a great victory may excuse Admiral Halsey for the pun which he greets today the news of the complete conquest of Guadalcanal. "Having sent General Patch to do a tailoring job on Guadalcanal, I am surprised and pleased at the speed with which he removed the enemy's pants to accomplish it." Thus the hard hitting Admiral enriches our heritage of picturesque military declarations, just as his south Pacific command—Army, Navy and Marines—has embellished forever the traditions of American arms.

Guadalcanal is a great victory although its scale may be small in comparison with the vast conflicts now raging in Russia or even those fought recently or impending in North Africa. Guadalcanal, about the size of Long Island, is merely one island of one of the many archipelagoes that dot the 3,500 miles of sea between it and Tokyo.

The Japanese may find comfort and the faint hearted among us may discover cause for dismay in the thought that if the six months required to take Guadalcanal is to set the pace for our advance on the Japanese homeland this generation will not see the victorious peace for which we are fighting.

Strength Just Beginning

But there is no good reason to measure our prospects by that standard. Our strength is just at its beginning in the Pacific. Admiral Halsey's spokesman says a new Allied offensive is under preparation. General MacArthur, who won Guadalcanal's companion triumph in New Guinea three weeks ago, has declared that we can expect something better than the unimaginative island-hopping strategy to which some think we are doomed, and already he has moved from the Papuan campaign to the next phase with a vigor and speed which promises well.

In a sense Guadalcanal has a significance akin to that of Stalingrad. Both saw the advance of a triumphant enemy stopped, then rolled back for the first time. (It was not until a month after the Marines landed in the Solomons that MacArthur's Australians and Americans turned back the Japanese thrust toward Port Moresby.) It was on Guadalcanal that American forces in this war first came to grips with the enemy on something like equal terms and in a finish fight showed which was master. Its place is comparable to that of Belleau Wood in the last war. Both, by the scale of the vaster battles then raging, were local actions, but their meaning went far beyond the square mileage occupied or the numbers of the enemy annihilated. Each of these fights the United States Marines formed the vanguard, sharing the victory with their comrades of the Army. Guadalcanal becomes a name to be forever emblazoned on the banners of that corps d'elite and some lyricist of genius may find a way to fit it into the Marine hymn.

May Prove Major

The moral effects of Guadalcanal and Papua may prove a major factor in the war's course. Yesterday Imperial headquarters was compelled to admit these defeats, and not even the docile, glib Japanese people will be fooled entirely by the explanation that worthless territory was exchanged for strategic advantages. The inescapable fact is that for the first time in the Pacific war (excluding the China war) the Japanese army and navy have been compelled to abandon a bitterly contested battlefield. And Japanese soldiers know now that neither the virtue of the august son of heaven nor their own fanatical, fatalistic fighting spirit is enough to make them invincible against tougher warriors using ever more powerful weapons. Most of them on Papua and Guadalcanal fought to the death but in the end some were surrendering in betrayal of the code their officers had sought to instill in them. There will be few Japanese survivors of these battles to return home and the high command doubtless will see that men who have had these experiences will be insulated from their comrades to prevent the spread of doubt in Japan's divine destiny. But those things have a way of getting around.

Amateurs Get $250 In Safe-Cracking

Lancaster, Pa., Feb. 10 (AP)—The police blamed "unskilled labor due to the manpower shortage." Amateurs broke into a laundry and worked on a 500-pound safe until they had reduced it to ruins—using, among other things, a 14-pound sledge, chisels, wrenches, and two hacksaws.

The police, announcing $250 missing, said the destruction was so complete they were without clues.

Suzanne Sten

(Continued From Page 1) ed their audience, and they did, the feeling was decidedly mutual because the artists held their Gettysburg audience in high appraisal. They immediately sensed the warmth, friendliness and spontaneity springing from genuine responsiveness that is characteristic of Gettysburgians in nearly all matters.

Dramatic Ability

Miss Sten's first number, "Agnus Dei," by Bizet, was well chosen. From her heart came the prayer asking God for mercy upon us and to give us peace. The aria from "Samson and Delilah" revealed her dramatic ability. She delighted her audience by singing her German group in English. "The Trout," by Schubert, was particularly appealing. Miss Sten reached her heights in the two arias from "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Carmen" in which she lived her parts and showed her splendid ability as an actress. In response to loud applause the artist sang the "Habanera" from "Carmen."

One of her numbers "So I Go Singing" was sung as if she enjoyed doing this as much as any thing she sang on her program.

The lovely, lilting lullaby "Night Is Coming" was composed by Erno Balogh, who will be the next and last guest artist of the season. This composition, as rendered by Miss Sten, is an indication of another treat in store for the members of the concert association. Miss Sten was most gracious and generous in giving three encores: "What Can the Matter Be," by Hegerow; "Meadows," by Warner, and "When I Have Sung My Song," by Ernest.

Too much praise can not be given to the accompanist and pianist of the evening, Kurt Adler whose rendition of his solos proved him to be a pianist of rare qualities as well as a splendid accompanist. His solos were "Rondo Capriccioso," Mendelssohn; "Rhapsody in G Minor" by Brahms, and his encore, "Sevilianas" (Spanish Dance), by Albeniz.—M.S.S.

Arendtsville FFA Group Cancels Trip

At a recent meeting of the South Mountain chapter of the Future Farmers of America at Arendtsville high school, it was decided to cancel the annual educational trip taken during the summer and instead use the fund for that purpose in purchasing war bonds.

Seventeen $50 bonds and 16 $25 bonds were purchased and recorded in the names of members. Four members are already in the armed forces and four more expect to be called by spring.

Freshmen and sophomores who will replace the present junior and senior members are planning to make the trip in 1944 or 1945. They have purchased the truck, trailer and equipment from the present organization.

Charles Smith is the adviser of the organization.

Opera House To Be Dance Palace

Philadelphia, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Philadelphia Metropolitan opera house which Oscar Hammerstein built in 1908 will reopen Feb. 26—as a public dance palace.

A New York city syndicate headed by Charles Solomon has acquired the building and Solomon says that after remodeling it will have the largest dance floor in the country, with 10,000 feet of floor space.

Since Hammerstein's day, the house has been variously a movie theatre, a boxing and wrestling arena and a dance floor.

SELLS POULTRY FARM

Norman L. Plank has sold his 11½-acre poultry and truck farm in Cumberland township, three and a half miles from Harney, to David E. Mason, Baltimore. Possession will be given February 23. The sale was made by C. A. Heiges, Buford avenue.

1,100 PLANES, 72 SHIPS LOST BY JAPS AT 'CANAL

An Advance Base in the South Pacific, Feb. 10 (AP)—Major Gen. Alexander M. Patch, commander of American troops on Guadalcanal island in the Solomons, reported officially today that "Guadalcanal has been taken completely and there is no longer any vestige of any Japanese organized forces on that island."

(It was estimated unofficially that the Japanese had lost 30,000 to 50,000 men in the Solomons campaign since last August 7.)

General Patch's advise was contained in a message to Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., commander of United States naval forces in the south Pacific.

Capt. Myles Browning, Halsey's chief of staff, announced that the last enemy resistance was overcome at 4:25 p. m. (Guadalcanal time) yesterday.

Japs Removed Officers

The Japanese previously had evacuated an unknown number of high ranking officers by destroyers and submarines but there was no indication of a mass removal of troops.

"It was not a definite surrender," Browning said. "Our flanking forces closed the pinchers on the enemy and a blot-out took place. There was no more space for the Japs to occupy."

There was no report here yet of the number of Japanese killed or captured or whether the survivors, trapped in the "blot-out" near Cape Esperance, had surrendered.

Considerable booty was said to have been taken, including much in the way of medical stores, but in this regard, too, there were no details.

"There is reason to believe the Japs were successful in moving out some of their people," Browning said. "An interesting development in that respect is the strong indication they made a deliberate effort to evacuate their senior officers when they perceived the situation was hopeless, leaving their junior officers and men to take the rap."

"There's nothing startling about that. It's the expected commentary on their psychology."

1,100 Planes Destroyed

Browning stated that Japanese losses in the Solomons campaign from the time of the American landing last August 7 through February 9 were, unofficially, 30,000 to 50,000 men, including many thousands wiped out in their landing operations.

Official reports said more than 1,100 enemy planes were actually observed to have been shot down. Seventy-two Japanese ships were sunk, and 11 probably sunk. The figure on plane losses excludes hundreds of crippled and probably unable to reach their home bases.

Captain Browning said "the Army, Navy and Marines and their respective air components all had an equal share in this victory, but you must bear in mind the Marines did the heavy spadework in the early months when the going was toughest."

He added that New Zealand fighting forces also had contributed to the success of the campaign.

American losses were not announced, but Army and Marine officers previously reported ratios of one United States plane destroyed to every ten Japanese and one American casualty to every seven for the enemy. Navy losses were put at a scale of one ship to three of the Japanese.

"So that people in the United States will not go hogwild over the victory," Browning emphasized that "Guadalcanal was never of any importance except for its airfield and as a jumping-off point for future operations."

Southern Miners To Sign With UMW

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—Informed sources said today the Southern Coal Producers association has decided to sign with the United Mine Workers for a six-day week on the same terms accepted by the rest of the Appalachian producing field. These sources withheld the use of their names.

The decision would extend the longer work week to all of West Virginia (the northern part had previously signed up), eastern Kentucky, Tennessee and Virginia.

The supplemental agreements provide for time and half after 35 hours. The southern group had held out, however, against the insistence of John L. Lewis, UMW president, that the sixth day of work should be on a voluntary basis so that a worker who absented himself would not be subject to the penalties of fines or discharge established in the contract for the five-day week. Lewis' stand has now won out, the sources said.

ventory their food stocks, computing such inventories into pound units, and will then register with the local rationing board, Mr. Flynn explained. They will be given certificates which will be banked and which they will draw upon, at the time of delivery of food stuffs, much as they draw checks or use cash to pay for supplies.

Discuss Menus

The association secretary emphasized the need of keeping a perpetual inventory of rationing points and told how essential it will be to carefully prepare menus so as to avoid duplication of foods of high point values, lest the hotel exhaust its allotted points before the sixty-day rationing periods, and have no food to serve during the balance of the time.

He urged close cooperation between managers, food department executives and chefs in the preparation of menus.

Typical menus were discussed for daily meals and for banquet service, which under the government rationing plan can continue to be maintained.

"Rationing Essential"

"There is no question but that huge quantities of food are going to be required for our army and navy and for lease-lend," Mr. Flynn asserted.

"Furthermore, shortage of farm labor and machinery will result in thousands of acres of productive land being abandoned. Hence, food rationing is essential. The system to be adopted appears to be fair and equitable. It merely requires thoughtful direction and the complete cooperation of hotel personnel, among themselves, and with their patrons.

"Hotels have already affected many economies in food service that has helped the food situation considerably. This the government authorities readily concede and it is pointed out that the men and women who occupy positions of responsibility in hotels have already done much toward intelligent conservation of food and the elimination of needless waste.

"Patriotic Service"

"As in all elements of living, hotels are the forerunners of modern standards and there is little question but that hotels will render an outstanding patriotic service in conservation of the food resources of the country and will, at the same time, continue to fulfill their responsibilities as institutions of public accommodation."

Managers and food department executives of the following hotels attended the conference:

The Yorktowne, Hotel Penn, Colonial and Brooks hotels, all of York; the Richard McAllister, Hanover; Hotel Gettysburg, Gettysburg; Graeffenburg Inn, near Caledonia Park; the Anthony Wayne, Waynesboro, and Hotel Washington, Chambersburg.

COUNTY NATIVE OPPOSE CHANGE DIES IN JERSEY IN PAROLE PLAN

Gilmore G. Roth, 79, a native of Adams county and brother of the late H. Milton Roth who was a former superintendent of the public schools of Adams county, died at his home in West Orange, New Jersey, January 29.

Funeral services were conducted February 1 from the Colonial funeral home, East Orange, with the Rev. Eric M. Lasman of Holy Communion church officiating. Burial was made in Restland Memorial Park.

The deceased was a son of the late Henry and Sarah Roth of Roth's mill in Butler township. He attended the public schools of the county, Gettysburg Academy and the State Teachers' college at Shippensburg. For many years he was engaged in the shoe business with a New York concern but retired 10 years ago.

A brother, Samuel S. Roth, Butler, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. Harry E. Schriver, Gettysburg R. D., and three daughters, Mrs. R. C. Hilsky, West Orange; Mrs. Carl Anderson, South Orange, and Miss Katherine Roth, at home, survive. The wife of the deceased died two years ago.

Removes Glasses; Crashes Into Truck

While Herbert S. Geiselman, 31, Jacobus, was taking off a pair of sunglasses as he drove along the Lincoln highway east of here early Tuesday afternoon, his truck struck the rear of the parked machine of Carl Leo Pfeiffer, 33, Baltimore.

Damage totaled about $30 but no one was hurt. Geiselman was operating a Penn Dairies truck while the car Pfeiffer was using was the property of the Western Maryland railroad. Private Anthony Martin of the Gettysburg detail of the state motor police investigated. No charges were laid.

Modern Belgium became an independent nation in 1830.

Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—Opposition of the Democratic legislative minority to proposed abolishment of the new State Parole board developed today coincident with its stand against the Administration plan to shift unemployment relief to the counties.

Rep. Reuben E. Cohen, the party's House floor leader, said "there is a general feeling" his forces will oppose any effort to scrap the parole setup "but the matter will be laid before the caucus for action before it is adopted as part of our program."

A bill introduced by Senator H. Jerome Jaspas (D-Philadelphia) proposes to abolish the board. Governor Martin commented the plan was in line with his economy program. Democrats now are seeking a hearing on the measure which is in the Senate Judiciary General committee.

Opposition to Martin's idea of returning relief to the counties with localities contributing part of the cost was expressed in the minority's preliminary legislative program adopted at a caucus of House and Senate members.

Woman Slain In Apartment House

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—A woman's screams echoed through a large Brooklyn apartment house yesterday. Alarmed tenants ran to the self-service elevator, pushed the button and the lift traveled to the fifth floor.

Opening the door, they found Mrs. Nahamah Baranow, 35, unconscious and blood oozing from a head wound. She died five hours later. Tenants reported a man carrying a heavy wrench was seen running down the apartment stairs from the second floor and out the front door.

The woman's handbag, valuable rings and other jewelry were not taken.

National Baseball League Purchases Phils; Will Be Resold To Syndicate

FORD FRICK GIVEN POWER TO SELL CLUB

By JUDSON BAILEY
New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—The question in baseball still is "Who is going to buy the Phils?" but there is a new meaning today in the old familiar query.

Acting as a broker, the National League yesterday bought up the stock of its Philadelphia problem child for resale to a syndicate and thus ended a weary 10-year reign for grey-haired, handsome Gerry Nugent as president of the club.

How soon the ownership will be passed along to a group of Philadelphia and New York men no one could say today, but there was every likelihood that the deal would be completed quickly—possibly today.

Have Bonafide Bid
League President Ford Frick, other club owners and Nugent, wrestled with the sale all day yesterday at the annual meeting of the National League. Frick and the other owners had determined on a show-down and refused to be deterred by an alternate proposal of Nugent by which he would have continued in control of the club.

They had a bonafide bid for the club, and in order to transfer a clear title to the new owners, free of the many obligations that had encumbered Nugent, the magnates voted to have the league buy all available stock, amounting to 4,685 shares of the 5,000 issued.

Debits of the club have been estimated at $130,000 to the league treasury and $60,000 to others. The league assumed all of these and paid Nugent a specified rate per share for his 52 per cent interest. The best guess on the price was $12 a share, which would have brought Nugent $31,200 for his 2,600 shares.

Nugent Disappointed
This made the purchase price approximately $250,000, but it was apparent that Nugent was greatly disappointed by the agreement.

There were reports that, until the league proceeded last November with steps to force a sale, Nugent wanted this much money for his stock alone.

Soon after Frick announced "Nugent is out" the Phil president went to his hotel room and refused to see anyone. Much later he returned to the meeting to sign some papers and commented, "I am going home and take a long rest."

The identity of the prospective buyers could not be learned except that Pury Ellis, Philadelphia broker, was mentioned. It was understood the league had made some minor changes in the proposition offered by the syndicate bidders and immediate conclusion of the deal was delayed because one of the buyers could not be reached by telephone.

Need Manager
Before the meeting adjourned resolutions covering every conceivable contingency were drawn up by the league so that Frick would be empowered to make a sale. One of these resolutions, it was learned, had to do with a different group of prospective purchasers which might come into the scene if for any reason the original deal should fall through.

The new owners must name a manager, send out player contracts and make arrangements for spring training within a few days.

The last major league club to change ownership was the Boston Braves which J. A. Robert Quinn and a syndicate bought in 1941.

SEEK TALLYHOS FOR TRACK FANS

Los Angeles, Feb. 10 (AP)—Bay Meadows—if it opens—is really going to be a horse affair.

Track officials are reported scurrying around in search of all available tallyhos, carryalls and buggies to move fans from the nearest trolley station, in case confirmation of the season is forthcoming when the State Racing commission reconvenes Monday.

The rubber shortage and the train space shortage have loomed large in the prolonged pondering of Bay Meadows' fate, but a horse shortage isn't anticipated.

Bay Meadows is 23 miles from San Francisco. An interurban line runs from San Francisco to San Mateo, a mile and three-quarters from the track. Horse-drawn vehicles, officials estimate, could carry about 1,500 persons an hour over this mile-and-three-quarter stretch—no track record, to be sure, but better than no track.

Golf Playing Is Termed Patriotic

Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—Golf playing should be continued if it is possible for players to get to and from their courses legitimately, the executive committee and officers of the Western Pennsylvania Golf association assert.

"It is patriotic to play golf as a health and morale measure," the committee decided at an emergency meeting yesterday.

The regular annual meeting of the organization was advanced from mid-April to Thursday, March 18,

Bullets-Maroons In Doubleheader

Tonight "Hen" Bream's Gettysburg college cagers will attempt to snap a three-game losing streak when they meet Dickinson college on the Bul-let court.

As a preliminary game the Gettysburg high dribblers will place its undefeated string before the Bullets jayvees.

The preliminary tilt will get underway at 7 o'clock.

Due to the large crowd expected, C. E. Bilheimer, athletic director, has announced Junior Bullets will not be admitted free tonight.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, Feb. 10 (AP)—Wonder

if Ford Frick's effort to get the Phils back on their feet will be as successful as his first big job as National League president. . . . Back in 1935, if you remember, Frick stepped into John Heydler's shoes just in time to deal with a similar situation at Boston. . . . He (or the National League) wasn't so gentle that time as yesterday's dealings with Gerry Nugent. . . . Gerry, at least, got some dough out of it but all Judge Emil Fuchs got when they took the Braves away from him was the bounce. . . . But the Braves kept solvent and even moved out of last place, which was all the league required. . . . All we can say for the Phils' buyers is that they must have as much courage as dough—and our understanding is that they had to show a good bankroll for expenses besides the price of the club's stock.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
Bill Reddy, Syracuse (N.Y.) Post Standard: "The manpower shortage already has brought a change in plans for the three metropolitan major league clubs. They've discovered that ushers won't be available, so they're figuring on usherettes. . . . Good idea. If the usherettes are sufficiently good-looking, they may distract the fans from what's going on out on the field."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
A Kentucky high school group has put that basketball "penalty box" idea up to the rules committee and it's said to be getting serious consideration. . . . Niftiest name for a race hoss reported this season is "Same In Summer" for a nag whose dam was "Helen Winter." . . . Bob Masterson, the Redskins' end, has taken a job as physical education teacher and baseball coach at Washington high school, but he doesn't know yet what he'll be doing when the football season arrives. . . . The Baltimore War Manpower Committee complains that hoss racing causes absenteeism. Isn't the same squawk that the favorite-players raise when they see the results?

SERVICE DEPT.
Judge Landis reports that the major leagues are working on a plan to broadcast their ball games to all American troops overseas "beginning the first day of the season." . . . Lieut. Woodie Adams, former T.C.U. football player, writes home from his south Pacific post that he's "as safe as I'd be in bed at home in Midland." . . . That Midland must be some town. . . . When Bob Sullivan, who used to be quite a boxer at Georgetown, was turned down by the Marines, he literally fought his way in. . . . He joined an ambulance unit that wound up at Tobruk and when the New Zealand detachment to which it was attached lost heavily, Bob grabbed a gun and went on front-line duty. Eventually he got home for a rest and the Marines decided anybody who could do that was okay.

Bobo Will Marry, Then Join Army
Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—Harry Bobo, hard-hitting negro heavyweight of Pittsburgh, announced that he would be married today—and on Saturday would leave to join the Army. The bride-to-be, he made known, is Adelaide Williams, 18, of Pittsburgh.

If Bobo is accepted for the Army, his dispute with the Pennsylvania Boxing commission about his eyesight likely will be ended "until Victory."

The argument arose last summer after Bobo's eye was hurt in the Gus Dorazio bout in Philadelphia. Barred from boxing in Pennsylvania, Bobo rested a few months, passed tests in Ohio and Maryland, and won fights from Harry Lane, Buddy Walker and Big Boy Brown.

Bobo was getting set for new tests of his eyes by Pennsylvania physicians but likely his date with the Army will make the civil examination unnecessary.

When a round-table discussion will be had with each of the 50 members of the association asked to attend.

Lock Haven To Lose 7 Players
Lock Haven, Pa., Feb. 10 (AP)—Seven Lock Haven athletes will be shooting guns instead of basketballs after Feb. 16, when they leave for Army duty at Camp Lee, Va.

Called up from the Army Reserve are five regulars and two reserves of Coach Hubert Jack's successful court squad, which has won seven games in nine starts—Paul Crompt, Bernard Messler, George Metro, Mike Bernardi, Armon Shaner, John McNally and Leonard Bryan.

Seek Permanent Pacific Bases
Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—An immediate Congressional investigation into methods for permanent American acquisition of "stepping stone" aerial and naval bases across the Pacific was proposed today by Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Naval committee.

He announced that he would appoint a Naval subcommittee to undertake a detailed study of developing and acquiring the bases, an undertaking which he conceded probably would involve the territorial possessions of France, Holland and Japan.

The need for the network of bases "to keep Japan disarmed on the sea" and "to prevent future aggression in that part of the world" was laid before the House Foreign Affairs committee yesterday by Secretary of Navy Knox in urging continuance of the Lend-Lease act.

Knox expressed belief the negotiations should be opened at once and that Lend-Lease aid extended by this nation would help create a "willingness on the part of those associated with us to be generous."

Meanwhile, Vinson disclosed that Knox, recently back from a tour of inspection which took him to Pacific outposts, had laid his proposition for post-war retention of Pacific bases before the Naval committee previously in secret session, and had found a favorable reception.

A final settlement of the complex issues involved in permanent acquisition of the bases, among them those of postwar foreign policy, undoubtedly would have to await negotiations by the State department.

Much of southern Chile is insular, notably the extensive Patagonian Archipelago.

Crack Rifle Shot Only An Entertainer
Philadelphia, Feb. 10 (AP)—Harry Robertson, a professional rifle shot and dart thrower, spent years aiming at pretty girl assistants and just missing, while audiences gasped.

Then he decided to join the Navy and aim at Japs. But the doctors turned him down—for faulty vision.

C.P.S. He's at the Army's New Cumberland Reception Center now, but not as a rifeman. He's a soldier-entertainer.

Gerry Nugent Steps Out Of Baseball With "Some Cash"

Philadelphia, Feb. 10 (AP)—Baseball's David Harum, who got into the game almost by accident, stepped from behind his "bargain counter" today and left the National League Phils just about where he found them—still in the cellar, but still pitching.

Gerald P. Nugent, considered the game's shrewdest trader, whose reign as Phils president ended yesterday, had steered the team through ten years marked by financial storms, slow finishes in the league races—and player swaps that rivalled the fictional David Harum's horse trading.

The white-haired, soft-spoken magnate was a salesman and a baseball fan until he met Mae Mallon, secretary to William F. Baker, a former Phils president. Baker hired him as business manager, Miss Mallon became Mrs. Nugent and on Baker's death she inherited much of his Phils' stock. Two years later Nugent was named president.

Financial Worries
The 1929 buzzard laid the egg of the Phils' financial troubles, but things had been bad even before then. After Nugent took over, however, he kept control and kept the team's head just above financial water by selling a star player every time the egg threatened to hatch.

He always had a star player—because every time he sold one he got one, along with the needed cash. An unknown rookie in whom he saw the makings of a great player. His estimate was usually right.

Nugent has sold such players as Chuck Klein, Dolf Camilli, Bucky Walters, Morrie Aronovitch, Kirby Higbe, Al Todd, Claude Passeau, Rube Melton and—his latest—Nick Etten. And most of them he acquired on deals in which they were mere "throw-ins."

Lossing Teams
The practice has worked against him on the diamond, of course; the Phils have finished last or next to last since he took control in 1932.

Pittsburgh Boxer Can't Shake Jinx
Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—Carmen Notch, Pittsburgh's popular welterweight essaying a comeback, could only nod agreement today to that old saying that once a fellow gets your number, its hard to shake off the jinx.

Notch, a slight favorite, was beaten in clean-cut fashion last night in a ten round bout by Maxie Berger of New York, who had licked him last summer in Toledo. Notch weighed 150 and Berger 148.

The Pittsburgher lacked the steam and stamina which he displayed in December, when he gave Fritz Zivic such a tussle here.

East Berlin
East Berlin—Mr. and Mrs. Eli J. Gross, of Locust street, have learned their son, Richard J. REFERENCE ON RACING TO BE ASKED IN FALL
By WILLIAM G. SMOCK
Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—Harry B. Correll of Bloomsburg, president of the Pennsylvania Association of County Fairs, said Tuesday that a referendum on legalizing pari-mutuel racing in the state probably will be held this fall.

Correll said petitions calling for a referendum were being prepared for distribution in the near future, adding "this is a move to gain revenue for county fairs which badly need the money."

He asserted details of the plan were not yet complete. At the association's recent convention, a proposal was made that any law sponsored should contain a provision that all county fairs share in receipts of pari-mutuel machines on a percentage basis.

Plan New Bill
Charles W. Swoyer of Reading, association secretary, said officers were considering drawing up a bill for introduction in the assembly to legalize pari-mutuel machines.

Petitions for a referendum are necessary since voters of any given sub-division must take the initiative to get the question on the ballot by circulating and filing referendum petitions.

The Legislature already has under consideration more than a score of bills affecting sportsmen's interests. One would raise the resident fishing license fee from $1.50 to $2 and use the additional revenue to buy land and waters, rebuild dams and study problems related to fishing.

Other Measures
Two other measures propose to exempt persons in the armed forces from paying for resident fishing and hunting licenses, while another would allow persons 16 and 17 years old to participate in amateur boxing and wrestling events.

Other measures would permit operation of bowling alleys after 2 p. m. on Sunday; submit the question of legalizing Sunday bowling to voters in a referendum; make it a crime to handle or manage fighting game cocks, and open to the public leased lands near waters stocked by the state with fish.

CARNEGIE TECH WINS CAGE GAME
Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—The almost forgotten Carnegie Tech boys chucked up an upset last night when they broke a seven-game winning streak of Allegheny college basketball 49 to 47 through a last minute field goal by Sophomore George March.

The visitors muffed their chance a few seconds earlier. With the score matted 47-47, their ace, Bill Present, missed both of two free throws given them after Tech's Captain Dave Brinn had committed his fourth foul.

March, sent in to take Brinn's place, responded with the winning shot. Brinn's 16 points were high for the game.

In another district game, at New Wilmington, Westminster's Titans staved off a thrilling last-quarter rally by Juniata to win 52 to 47. It was the Titans' fourth straight victory. Eisenhart, Juniata center, led the scoring, however, with 17 points, including seven successful free throws.

WARNS OF SUICIDE
Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Stella Moddy, 58, telephoned her husband at work yesterday that she was going to take gas, the coroner's office reported. When he got home he found her dead. She had been an invalid 10 years.

Winnie Stops Commons' Show
London, Feb. 10 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons today that he would soon make a statement on the war situation, including a reference to the creation of a United Nations war council. He spoke in answer to a question.

The Prime Minister, who returned Sunday from his trip to north Africa and the Middle East, stopped the show in Commons.

He entered unobtrusively during the question period and started to ward his seat on the treasury bench. One of the ministers was speaking when Churchill appeared.

An explosion of cheering and applause burst on all sides and continued until the Prime Minister was seated. He was smiling broadly.

Responding to further questions, Churchill said he would also discuss the import and shipping situation in his forthcoming statement.

He acknowledged that Britain was "dipping into" her food reserves, but said he was "not unduly anxious about the situation" from a long-term viewpoint.

ACCUSE COAL OPERATOR
Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—Fredrick B. Downing, Erie coal operator, was charged yesterday with violating Internal Revenue provisions of the bituminous coal act. The Internal Revenue Bureau accused him of failing to produce his records, to testify in September and November, and of not making a return on coal produced in 1941.

More than 100 million tons of coal will be used to provide chemicals in 1943.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest
"AS YOU SAY"

"Well," I say to the missus, "what's planned for today?"

Have you made up your mind?
Do we go, do we stay?
Here at home do we dine or with good friends afar?
Remember, my dear, we've no gas for the car!"

And she says, as that sweet smile of hers reappears:
"We'll do as you say, as we've done down the years."

Says the missus to me: "For your dinner tonight
Is it roast beef or lamb, is it brown bread or white?
Is it meat loaf or stew, is it chicken or fish?
Just say what you'd like, it shall be as you wish."
And I say, as an attitude solemn I strike:
"Why bother to ask, when you'll serve what you like."

To the children I say when they plead for a show:
"For permission of course to your mother you'll go."
And the mother as subtle, as subtle as can be
To settle the question returns them to me.

For that's how it is, as all married folks know;
Each is sure that the other is running the show.

Today's Talk
By George Matthew Adams

DEAR SON

That notation on your first letter from camp, before your name—"Pvt."—gave your dad a great thrill, as it must have given you when you first wrote it. You start your army career at scratch. This rest is up to you, and I pray that you may go forward each day, happy in doing your part in the best way you can.

You are now in a new and strange world, but I am sure that you will get on all right if you will adapt yourself to all required duties, performing faithfully, and remembering to apply the same standards of clean thinking and conduct that have up to now brought to you your desired health and happiness.

Surrounding you will be every grade and class of man and boy—but you are all individually an integral part of the country you love, and you are all in training for the same task—to keep the freedom we have all for so long enjoyed, and which was purchased in the beginning at a tremendous price in blood and tears.

You are a soldier now in an army of free men. The only hatred that should enter your heart is the hatred for tyranny that would dissolve this freedom and put in its place abject slavery. You must not hate people, but the evil that people propose.

At all times be a good sport. Say little, but do much. Keep that temper of yours always to yourself. No one else wants it! Self-control is a soldier's powerful weapon. It often works better than a gun. And be friendly to all about you. There are thousands as lonely and hungry at heart as you will often be. Honor the Mother who bore you, at all times. And the Dad who backs you up at home.

And when you are silent in your bunk at night, review the tasks of the day, and think out ways to make your next day a better and more efficient one. And think a great deal about God and the free world that he meant this one of yours to be—not only free for you, but for all everywhere. That's what this war is about. Pray to God. It will keep you clean in mind and brave—and carry you through victoriously. The Dad, who writes this talk, daily prays for you—and every boy, wherever that boy may be.

And so, dear Son—Cheerio, and God bless you!
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Divine Discontent."

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Back From France: Charles A. Robinson, who left here last summer with a United States Army bakery company, has returned to this country from France. He has reached an Atlantic port and sent word to his wife that he would soon be home. Mr. Robinson was given his discharge because of ill health.

Local Railroad Tie-Up Is Total: More than sixteen hours late, the Reading passenger train due in Gettysburg at 10 a. m. Monday, rolled into town at 2:07 Tuesday morning. It took the combined efforts of a mighty snow plow and three engines to release it from a big drift near Guernsey where it had been held for more than half a day.

Double Wedding: L. Merl Culp, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Culp, of near Biglerville, and Miss N. Blanche Knouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Knouse, of Biglerville were married Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock by Rev. T. C. Hesson, at the Reformed parsonage in Arendtsville.

Francis R. Culp, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Culp, and Miss Sara A. Toot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Toot of Route 5, Gettysburg, were married Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock, by Rev. T. C. Hesson, at the Reformed parsonage in Arendtsville.

Cannot Abandon Closed Mondays: Washington, Feb. 6.—With the East facing the most acute coal shortage of the winter and in the grip of the coldest weather in a generation, the government has decided that the heatless Monday program cannot, at this time, be abandoned, as has been hoped.

McSherry-Wise Church Wedding: Miss Nan Wise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wise, of Spring Grove, and Alban G. McSherry, Gettysburg, were married at a nuptial mass in Sacred Heart Catholic church, Spring Grove, at 9:30 Thursday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father M. J. Hynes, of Paradise.

Peters-Ovelman: Miss Sarah Eleanor Ovelman, of Emmitsburg, and William Oliver Peters, of Gettysburg, were married at the Methodist parsonage at three o'clock Friday afternoon, by Dr. R. S. Oyler.

Have Beautified A Local Church: On Sunday the first services were held in the Methodist church since the installation of the new stained glass windows. Fourteen windows have been placed and all but two of them have been taken by church organizations, members or friends of the church.

Another Goes In: The roof on the barn of W. J. Eckenrode, in Cumberland township, collapsed on Sunday.

For Sale: Oakland roadster, model 34, late 1917. Run 2,000 miles, fully equipped. Owner must leave town. Dr. J. McCrea Dickson.

Must Observe Rules On Flour: Local dealers in flour are now notified that hereafter they must stick strictly to the provisions of the new food orders and sell with each pound of wheat flour one pound of substitute. Many of the dealers pointed out to the local administrator Dr. E. H. Markley, that they had as yet been unable to get the substitute and he endeavored to secure an extension of one more week here, but without success.

To Reject Few Of Drafted Men: According to instructions received by the local board the great majority of the men they examined from now on for physical defects will have to be given a re-examination at some nearby hospital, likely York. As the members of the local board interpret the ruling the only men they can finally reject are those who are absolutely perfect according to army standards, and the only ones they can finally reject are imbeciles, cripples, men totally blind or with some other defect that makes them entirely unfit for work.

President Roosevelt Orders 48-Hour Work Week

32 AREAS ARE AFFECTED; GET OVERTIME PAY

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—The prospect of an invasion of Europe this year, followed by unparalleled prosperity in the postwar period, was held out to Americans today but until victory is won they were told they must work longer hours and adopt a "Spartan standard of living."

To hasten the day of victory, President Roosevelt last night ordered a 48-hour minimum work week on the home front, with time and a half overtime pay for all those covered by the fair labor standards act. This means a 30 per cent weekly wage increase for thousands now working a 40-hour week.

"Until further notice" the order was limited by War Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt to 32 labor shortage areas, extending from Maine to Washington state and from Florida to California.

Immediately the action was announced, economic stabilization Director James F. Byrnes went on the radio to give the people a broad outline of the struggle ahead on the civilian front, and particularly to warn against "a creeping inflation."

May Be Extended
Manpower Commissioner McNutt indicated that the 48-hour week probably would be extended to other areas later, but it is not likely to reach cities having plentiful labor supplies, New York for example.

The 32 areas affected immediately are:
Bath, Me.; Bridgeport, Waterbury, Hartford, and New Britain, Conn.; Portsmouth, N. H.; Springfield, Mass.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Somerville, N. J.; Baltimore, and Elkhart, Md.; Hampton Roads, Va.; Washington, D. C.; Akron and Dayton, Ohio; Detroit; Manitowoc, Wis.; Sterling, Ill.; Brunswick, Ga.; Charleston, S. C.; Macon, Ga.; Mobile, Ala.; Panama City, Fla.; Pascagoula, Miss.; Wichita, Kan.; Beaumont, Tex.; Cheyenne, Wyo.; Ogden, Utah; Las Vegas, Nev.; Portland, Ore.; San Diego, Calif.; Seattle, Wash.

"In those areas," said McNutt, "it (the order) applies to all employment."

Moreover, Fowler V. Harper, McNutt's chief deputy, announced that it is not discretionary with employers but is mandatory. A reasonable period of several weeks will be allowed to put the program into effect.

The Manpower commission expects to find other jobs for workers forced out by the longer work week.

PLAN CEILING ON FLUID MILK

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—In an effort to avert further increases in retail milk prices, the Office of Price Administration soon will establish nationwide ceilings on the prices farmers receive for fluid milk.

An initial temporary order, which generally will peg prices at the highest levels distributors paid to producers last month, will be replaced in 60 days by a permanent regulation.

Current prices to producers are "generally favorable," the OPA said, adding that the price ceilings would "lessen the pressure of uncontrolled producer prices which have been forcing advances in retail milk prices to the public."

The pegged prices, which the OPA said would be 113 per cent of parity and the highest producers have received for raw milk since 1923, will range from $2.75 to $4.80 per hundredweight according to the area.

At the time the temporary order becomes effective, the agency said it also would direct a reduction of $4 to $8 a ton on alfalfa hay prices in California, Oregon and Washington to lower the farmers' feed costs. Steps already are being taken to reduce alfalfa prices in other sections.

175 WAACS Leave For Sunny South

Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—The first western Pennsylvania company of the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps, composed of 175 young women volunteers, was enroute Tuesday to the sunny south for active duty in non-combatant army service.

The smiling, gay group embarked last night for Daytona Beach, Fla., after receiving a rousing send-off at a testimonial banquet. The affair officially opened WAAC week in Pittsburgh.

Approximately 1,200 well-wishers turned out to honor the recruits, first of this district's new weekly quota of 150. They were enlisted in 16 counties during the past fortnight.

of Weehawken, N. J., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson, East Middle street.

Flashes of Life

SHOE RATION PROBLEM
Lowell, Mass. (AP)—A one-legged man has put this question to the local rationing board: "Do I get one or two shoes with my coupon? I wear out one shoe in half the time a two-legged man wears out a pair. Can I use the coupon twice, or do I get two shoes at one time?" The board is looking toward Washington for an answer.

REALISTIC ACTING
Fort Devens, Mass. (AP)—The acting of Ray Rand, of Lexington, Ky., was convincing, to say the least. He took the part of a character supposed to have the measles in a recent USO performance of the comedy, "Room Service"—and began to feel ill during the show. Now he is in the station hospital. Diagnosis—the measles.

TOO MUCH POSTAGE?
Wilmington, Del. (AP)—Ten years ago George P. Swain ordered a shipment from a Washington, D. C. firm. It arrived in yesterday's mail—postmarked June 5, 1933—and was the postman's face red! The shipment (from a philatelic agency): 46 cents worth of stamps.

TRY—TRY—AGAIN DEPT.
Kansas City (AP)—Mrs. S. L. Wilson has attended four theaters to see her 17-year-old son, Pvt. Melvin Lee Wilson, in a Guadalcanal newsreel. Each time she fainted just before he appeared on the screen. Her husband, a doctor, accompanies her and each time has been ready with restoratives. "Things just seem to go black when I know Melvin is due to appear," Mrs. Wilson explains. "But I'm going to see him yet!" She's trying her fifth theater tonight.

BILL PROPOSES TO ELIMINATE TEACHER MEET

Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—Minimum salaries for state liquor store employees ranging from $1,500 to $2,100 would be established under a bill presented in the House by Reps. J. J. Baker and Louis Leonard (D-Allegheny).

The measure would require these minimums: $2,100 for managers; $1,800 for assistant managers and $1,500 for others. Following a work stoppage last year of store employees in the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh areas, these minimums were established: $1,440 to $1,584 for clerks and $1,695 to $3,150 for managers.

Other bills introduced would: Make it a misdemeanor for any person or officer to pretend to be a member of the liquor-licensed club to make purchases—Reps. J. J. Baker and Louis Leonard (Allegheny).

Reduce the legal age of bus drivers from 21 to 18 years—Rep. Warner M. Depuy (R-Pike).

Lower the four-mill county personal property tax to two mills—Rep. Irving S. Dix (R-Wayne).

Extend Civil Service regulations in cities of the third class—Rep. D. W. Dalrymple (R-Erie).

Eliminate Institute
Eliminate annual assembly of teachers called by county Superintendents—Rep. Albert L. O'Connor (D-Cambria).

Increase expenses of township delegates attending annual meetings from $7.50 to $10 a day—Rep. B. H. Goodwin (D-Allegheny).

Appropriate $69,700 to the state Council for the Blind to provide home training for adult blind persons—Rep. Gus Wacchhaus (R-Schuylkill).

Compel all employers to file statements of financial responsibility and require employers not financially responsible to take out compensation insurance—Rep. M. E. Herman (D-Philadelphia).

Permit churches, fire companies and social or fraternal organizations to operate bingo games on payment of $50 license fee—Senator J. J. McCreesh (D-Philadelphia).

Require persons sentenced to prison to pay costs of their maintenance—Senator F. W. Ruth (D-Berks).

Repeal all 1935 emergency relief taxes—Senator B. B. McGinnis (D-Allegheny).

Youth Admits He Killed His Wife

York, Pa., Feb. 10 (AP)—Warden Joseph McClain said a 25-year-old plant worker walked into the county jail Tuesday and stated that he had killed his wife.

Police went to his home and found the body of his wife on a davenport in the living room. She had been stabbed with a butcher knife.

McClain identified the man as Kervin E. Cassell and quoted him as saying in a statement:

"I don't know what made me do it. I just grabbed and stabbed her." No charge was placed against the man immediately.

The slain woman was 30 years old, and the mother of two children.

SEEK $10 FEE TO REGISTER AUTOMOBILES

Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Republican legislative majority called for quick action today on a bill to fix a flat $10 registration fee for passenger automobiles.

The measure moved into position for final action by the House after overwhelming rejection of a proposal to fix a graduated scale of fees in line with gasoline rationing books.

Also ready for a vote before the assembly quits for the week was a companion bill to reduce registration fees for light trucks from $26.50 to $16.50. War restrictions prompted both.

The House debated the auto fee proposal nearly an hour last night, turning back efforts by Reps. Joseph M. O'Brien and James H. Tate (D-Philadelphia) to set fees of $5 for all cars bearing "A" ration stickers, $7.50 for "B" and $10 for "C."

$3,000,000 Cut
Rep. H. J. Maxwell (D-Westmoreland) also was rebuffed in efforts to cut fees to $5 on the claim "small car owners are not getting enough reduction."

Termining the move "ridiculous," co-sponsor Lloyd H. Wood (R-Montgomery) estimated the $10 fee—they now range from $10 to $32—would bring about a $3,000,000 reduction for the year. He expressed belief Governor Martin would veto a bill setting a $5 fee.

While the House Republican leadership was pushing the bill toward a vote, Senate GOP chieftain Weldon B. Heyburn declared "I think it is going to pass here and we should act quickly since a lot of money can be saved by changing procedure before applications start to pour in."

State Guard Issue
He estimated administrative costs in issuing registrations would be cut $100,000 annually by establishing the flat rate. Fees now are based on horsepower, requiring detailed procedure.

Aside from the car fee debate, the House night session brought passage of a bill to change the name of the Pennsylvania Reserve Defense Corps to the State Guard for duration of the war. The measure, by Rep. Harry P. O'Neill (D-Lackawanna) and Arthur P. Bretherick (R-Delaware), now goes to the Senate.

The upper branch, meanwhile, received a plea from the Pennsylvania Federation of Teachers for defeat of a bill by Senators Frederick L. Honsler (R-Lancaster) and Thomas B. Wilson (R-Jefferson) to revise school laws and make pupils available for farm work.

Aviation Instructor Loses Life In Leap

Christiansburg, Va., Feb. 10 (AP)—Clifton H. Watrous, 35, aviation instructor from Corry, Pa., lost his life by leaping from his plane with a student Monday, when he might have lived had he remained aboard, Coroner A. M. Showalter reported.

T. W. Gillespie, of Oak Hill, West Virginia, a former student at Virginia Polytechnic institute, now taking flight training, suffered several fractured ribs and severe shock in his leap.

The coroner said he was told that at an altitude of around 1,000 feet the plane's controls stuck and the instructor told Gillespie to bail out.

Watrous then tried to bring the ship down without success, finally leaping from an altitude of about 250 feet and landing in an orchard near the highway. His body was badly battered. It was removed to a funeral home at Blacksburg.

The plane, Dr. Showalter said, landed on its wheels and was not badly damaged.

"The instructor would not likely have been killed if he had remained in the ship," the coroner said.

Watrous joined the training staff of VPI at Blacksburg only recently. The accident occurred between Blacksburg and Christiansburg.

The fortress of Schluesselsburg, 25 miles east of Leningrad, was built more than 600 years ago.

English Train Escapes Bombing

London, Feb. 10 (AP)—A brief air raid alarm, followed quickly by the all-clear, sounded in London Tuesday.

The city's sirens screamed at the approach of a small number of German planes which took advantage of a thick cloud cover to cross the coast and penetrate some distance inland.

There was no anti-aircraft fire here and there were no reports of bombs being dropped.

The raiders bombed some localities on the southeast coast and machine-gunned a crowded London-bound passenger train.

The train was nearing a tunnel when one raider let loose with his rapid fire. The engineer put on steam and the train sped into the safety of the tunnel. No one was hurt.

Early last night, it was reported, one enemy plane was destroyed during activity off the southeast coast of England.

EXTENSION OF TURNPIKE IS ASKED IN BILL

Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—Another eastward extension of the Pennsylvania turnpike from Harrisburg to a point on the Delaware river near Easton was proposed today by Senator Charleton T. Woodring (D-Northampton).

The solon said he is seeking Republican support for a bill he is drafting which would provide for a third extension of the super highway now running between Pittsburgh and Harrisburg.

Previous Legislatures authorized extensions westward from Pittsburgh to the Ohio line and from Harrisburg to the Delaware at Philadelphia. Woodring's proposal would provide a link with highways leading to New York.

The Senator said his proposal is "in line with the type of post-war projects which Governor Martin has called for," adding it also would relieve crowded traffic conditions on state highway Route 22 from Harrisburg to the industrial centers of Bethlehem, Allentown and Easton.

"I don't care where the extension meets the Delaware river," declared Woodring, "but I think the logical place would be between Tregettsville and Raubsville, seven miles south of Easton."

The proposed route from Harrisburg would parallel Route 22 for part of the distance, passing through Dauphin, Lebanon, Berks, Lehigh and Northampton counties, adding 95 miles to the present 160-mile express highway.

The route of the other proposed eastward extension has never been definitely established although its course would be through the southern tier counties of Lancaster and Chester.

The present turnpike was opened in 1940. Its construction was financed by a public works grant of $29,250,000 and a Reconstruction Finance corporation loan of $40,800,000. Woodring said plans for providing funds for this proposed extension are under study.

In addition to the women, others seeking commutation of life sentences for first degree murder and the year they were sentenced are:

Barclay, Philadelphia, 1941; Daniel Piccarelli, Philadelphia, 1932; Champion Salfour, Philadelphia, 1926; Frank Wojnarowski, Erie, 1927; Matthew Martin Gearhart, Huntingdon, 1931; Robert Kiley, Luzerne, 1934; William Curtis McCoy, Washington, 1930; John Mannie, Westmoreland, 1930; Toy Casey, Allegheny, 1931; and Giacomo Gucciardo, Bucks, 1929.

The board refused 15 previous applications of Mannie, nine applications of Wojnarowski and seven applications of Gucciardo.

Cites Costs Of Relief Program

Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—Unemployment relief, administration of which Governor Martin proposes to shift from the state to the counties as an economy move, now is costing from $47,490 weekly in Philadelphia to $45 in Forest, the Department of Public Assistance reported Tuesday.

Most of the state's unemployment now is centered in the coal regions and Philadelphia and Allegheny counties, from which Martin said protests had developed against changing the relief setup.

These areas claim they are unable financially to carry the relief load but Martin insists otherwise. He proposed that the state continue to help pay for the program but left to the Legislature the task of fixing the amount of contribution. Localities in most states provide an average of 60 per cent of the cost.

I found the way to Amazing NEW Pep... Vitality... better LOOKS!

1—Promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach

2—Energize your body with RICH, RED BLOOD!

Now you may overcome the discomforts or embarrassment of digestive complaints, sour stomach, bloating, underweight, loss of appetite, poor complexion, jerky nerves, weakness!

If you are subject to poor digestion or suspect deficient red-blood as the cause of your trouble, yet have no organic complication or focal infection, SSS Tonic may be just what you need as it is especially designed to promote the flow of vital digestive juices in the stomach and to build-up blood strength when deficient.

These two important results enable you to enjoy the food you do eat... to make use of it as Nature intended. Thus you may get new vitality... pep... become animated... more attractive!

Railroad Fireman Killed In Wreck

Johnstown, Pa., Feb. 10 (AP)—A Pennsylvania railroad fireman was killed when a locomotive jumped the track and seven freight cars were derailed a quarter-mile west of South Park station today.

The body of the fireman, S. M. Robbins of Export, was pinned in the wreckage.

The crash blocked the four main line tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad and wrecking crews were called from Cresson and Gallitzin. All of the derailed cars were badly damaged.

Cause of the derailment was not immediately apparent.

State Scrap Quota Is 1,635,000 Tons

Harrisburg, Feb. 10 (AP)—Pennsylvania's quota for scrap iron and steel in the first half of 1943 again is the highest in the nation, the salvage committee of the state Council of Defense announced today.

The new quota is 1,635,000 tons compared with 2,978,000 for the last half of 1942. The last quota was greater to enable steel mills to build up a reserve for the winter months.

State salvage chairman Warren R. Roberts asked farmers to use the winter lull to assemble heavy scrap in preparation for a rural collection drive.

Under the quota, 35 eastern Pennsylvania counties will be expected to raise 744,000 tons of scrap and 32 western counties the remaining 891,000 tons.

SEVEN MILLION CERTIFIED FOR ROADS IN STATE

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—A total of $7,179,696 was certified, as of December 31, for the construction of defense access roads in Pennsylvania, the Public Roads administration informed a House Appropriations subcommittee.

Thomas H. MacDonald, Administration commissioner, gave the committee tables showing that $210,697 was made available from the Administration's regular funds, $230,653 by the state, $3,039,025 by the War department, and $3,699,411 by the Navy department.

Describing the shift from a peacetime to a war-time program, MacDonald told the committee:

"In 1940 $89,000,000 out of a total cost of $338,000,000 was for defense highway projects (throughout the nation). In 1941, with a somewhat smaller total cost of $305,000,000, a sum of $150,000,000 was devoted to defense highway projects.

Roads to Camps
In the calendar year 1942 the total cost of new work approved increased to $399,000,000 and the shift to war projects was practically complete, although a small amount of new work, required largely to preserve previous investments in preliminary improvements, was carried on."

The providing of funds for construction of access roads to military establishments was the major activity of the Public Roads administration during 1942, MacDonald said.

Tables showed that in Pennsylvania during the fiscal year 1942 a total of $9,991,275 of Federal funds was provided for highway construction and grade crossing elimination, the total cost of which was $17,616,405. This included construction of 174.6 miles of roads, the elimination of 17 grade crossings, and one crossing reconstructed.

1943 Appropriations
MacDonald said that $4,087,815 of regular Federal-aid highway funds have been apportioned by the Roads administration for Pennsylvania in the fiscal year 1943. This is $624,039 less than was spent for the fiscal year 1942. There was no indication of proposed highway expenditures to be authorized by the War and Navy departments.

Maj. Gen. Philip B. Fleming, Federal Works Agency administrator, provided the committee with a table showing that $468,782 of Public Roads administration funds have been apportioned for planning post-war highway construction projects in Pennsylvania.

This amount is to be matched by the state, making available a total of $937,564. One project, approved September 24, will cost $10,000,000. The Federal government and the state each have provided $200,000 for plans.

BLONDIE

SCORCHY SMITH

POPEYE

Problem of the WIRE CAGE

BY JOHN DICKSON CARR

Chapter 17

"I know," he went on, "you got rattled and blurted out the first thing that came into your head. I don't blame you. But—"

"Oh, no," said Brenda with a certain grimace. "I mean, I was rattled right enough, darling; but I told that story deliberately, and I mean to stick to it."

She was no longer the frightened girl of the tennis-court. He could sense that in the gloom even before she spoke.

"I had to tell them that," she said. "Do you know why? I suddenly found they were all trying to throw the blame on you. And I wasn't having any of that, thank you."

"But—"

"Swine," said Brenda. "I'll show them. Listen, here's the story quick. Then we can turn on the lights and dare them to take the fort. I said I went down there at twenty minutes past seven; which was true. I said I went to get the picnic hamper; which was also true. But I didn't tell them I'd actually got the hamper. I couldn't admit I'd been walking about carrying it, in case they opened it and found that pair of muddy tennis shoes inside."

"Yes."

"There wasn't any trouble about saying that. I told you I'd put the hamper exactly where it was to begin with, so there's nothing to show it's been moved. I simply said I hadn't gone as far as the pavilion to pick up the hamper. I said that just as I was going round the side of the court towards the pavilion, I looked across the court and saw Frank. . . . Did you say anything?"

"No; go on."

"And there," she continued, "was where I got my inspiration. There was nothing to show I'd ever been near the hamper. Well, do you know how heavy that hamper is? It's full of china and weighs forty pounds. And I suddenly remembered I'd carried it clear out on the tennis-court and clear back. . . ."

Hugh said with careful articulation, "So you told Superintendent Hadley to look at the depth of the footprints in the sand. You said they were much too deep for you to have made. You pointed out that you yourself weigh about seven stone; whereas the person who made those tracks must have weighed about ten stone. Is that it?"

"How on earth did you know?"

"There is thought-transference in this," declared Hugh. "We are what the old romances called soul-mates. I know it because I thought of exactly the same thing as a possible line of attack. But it seemed too barefaced even for me to use. Holy cats, trust a woman to come out flat with a flat brazen-nosed lie like that and stick to it even if she's fainting under it!"

"They believe me. I'll swear that police-officer believed me. I could tell there was something awfully queer about those tracks, because I put my foot in the edge of one and it was exactly the same size as mine. Also, it was a Grey Goose shoe, with a goose pattern in the rubber sole-mark. I said I remembered I had a spare pair of shoes in the pavilion, that anybody might have stolen. So I said I ran and looked in the pavilion, and the spare pair had gone out of the locker." She paused. "That's about all. I said I was frightened and didn't know what to do. Then, at close on seven-thirty you came along. There you are. What do you think?"

Hugh considered.

"Frankly, I'm not whooping with enthusiasm about it."

"But I've already said it! Why not? What's wrong with it?"

"Well, the main difficulty is that if they ever spot the connection between you and that hamper—as it's three to one they'll do, since you admit you went down there after it—then we're done for. As a matter of routine they'll search the pavilion open the hamper, and find the shoes."

Hugh took several more strides back and forth. "The celebrated Dr. Frankenstein," he said, "had nothing on me. Well, let's see. The advantage of the plan is psychological. Nobody will ever believe—whether you went out there to kill Frank, or whether you only went to look at his dead body—that you ever went out on that court lugging a forty-pound picnic-hamper. Nobody would think it reasonable. So their minds may not connect the manner with the too-deep footprints. And there's another strong argument. I can think of, which is psychological too. And then Hadley appears to believe you. Yes, on the whole we might have a fighting chance, but—"

"Wait, Hugh. You say we 'might' have a fighting chance?"

"Something like that."

"In other words, you mean you're not going to back me up?"

He threw up his hands. "Something like that."

"Brenda, it's not a question of backing you up. If you insist on sticking to your story, I'm with you, of course. But you don't seem to realize how serious this is. This is murder. You're up against Scotland Yard. Let's know where we stand before—"

"I don't realize how serious it is," said Brenda. "You don't you mean. And whoever I'm up against, they're not going to arrest you if I can help it."

"Look here, I may be very dense, but I still don't see how telling this string of whoppers is going to help me. Besides, they're not going to arrest me."

She blazed at him. "Oh, aren't they? Do you know Maria swears she saw you standing over Frank's body and hitting him with that rake?"

"But that's hysterical nonsense. It's got nothing to do with the case."

"No, and neither have my footprints; but they landed me in the middle of it just the same."

There was a pause, after which Brenda spoke in a hard, tight, repressed voice.

"You don't know what happened to me up here. At least, you haven't bothered to ask. When I came up to the house, I—I loved you so much I couldn't see straight. I mean, the way you pitched straight in to help me, without asking any questions or ever even thinking for a second I might have done it. And do you know what I found when I got here? I found Nick and Maria and that man Hadley waiting for me at the top of the stairs. The first thing I heard was that you had done. Nick and Maria had got that all worked out between them."

"I was already worried about that. I knew Maria would tell some horrible story or other. What was I to say? If I told the truth, and said there hadn't been any footprints at all until I made them, they just simply wouldn't have believed me. You didn't believe me yourself. But if I said the real murderer must have made the footprints in my shoes, then they couldn't possibly accuse you. You could no more have worn a pair of my shoes than the Man in the Moon. That's all."

Brenda's voice grew even harder and more repressed.

"I'm sorry if what I said doesn't satisfy your legal mind. Perhaps I didn't stop to 'weigh all the factors.' If you had seen Nick's face, and heard what he was saying, maybe you wouldn't have either. After all you'd done for me, I just felt I'd die if I didn't clear you. But all you can do now is pick holes in it as though I'd betrayed you somehow. You weren't scrupulous about faking beforehand. Very well. You can do or say what you like; but that's my story and I'm sticking to it."

"Brenda, I beg you pardon. I didn't understand."

"Never mind. It doesn't matter."

"Of course it matters. Speaking of a person being too much in love to see straight—"

"Why bother?"

There was only one thing to be done. In the revulsion of feeling she was clinging to him, her arms pressed round his neck, when brakes screeched on motorcars pulling into the driveway, when the twilight grew loud with voices, and dim figures crowded into the garden.

"Brace up," Hugh said. "Here come the cops. That's our story, and we're sticking to it."

"Shall I put on the lights?"

"Yes, would better."

No Need To Extend Driving Ban Area

Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—William M. Jeffers, federal rubber administrator, said Monday night that the nation's synthetic rubber program is "getting along very nicely now" and indicated that, as far as the rubber supplies are concerned, there will be no need to enlarge the 16-state area in which pleasure driving is banned.

Jeffers, here to inspect a synthetic rubber plant, was asked whether there was any reason why motorists should be cut to a basic ration of less than four gallons a week outside the no-pleasure-driving region. "Not so far as the rubber situation is concerned," he said.

WPB TO BREAK "BOTTLENECK" IN PRODUCTION

By STERLING F. GREEN
Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—The War Production Board today announced its plan to break the bottleneck in production of "critical components"—the motors, valves, boilers, gears, instruments and other products whose shortage is a drag on all the major armament programs.

The plan, similar to the "rationalization of industry" programs developed in Japan and Germany to boost industrial output, will be carried out by WPB in collaboration with the industries involved, which together comprise a considerable part of American industry.

"Task forces" made up of production men and engineers from each of the components' industries will take part in the production scheduling program, WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson reported.

Shift Orders, Tools
The full scheduling scheme means, Nelson said, that orders will be withdrawn from firms having excessive backlogs and will be given to less crowded plants; and that manpower will be provided to those firms which have the producing capacity but lack the labor force.

Moreover, it was learned that WPB also plans to issue shortly an order providing for the transfer of critical machine tools from plants where they are not being used to the best effect, to other factories where they can be utilized to step up production of the components.

The transfer may be effected by loan, sale or if necessary, by outright requisitioning. WPB has requisitioning power, but has not previously set up machinery for prompt use of its authority. An official source who cannot be quoted said the forthcoming order would provide such machinery.

SHAME ON YOU WILLIE GREEN!

Washington, Feb. 10 (AP)—Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller and President William Green of the AFL are at odds today—and Mrs. Miller says Mr. Green's "chivalry" is involved.

Mrs. Miller, a sister of Senator Joseph Guffey, Pennsylvania Democrat, and Democratic national committeewoman for Pennsylvania, had this to say about Green's argument that an equal rights bill in Congress would deprive women of protective laws in various states:

"Anti-suffragists used to say that women should not vote because 'it would remove the bloom.' Mr. Green's chivalry is on a par with theirs."

"It isn't humanitarianism that will not allow women in New York state the right to sell ice cream and soda after 10 p. m.—it is the fact that the tips are larger then."

"The truth is that Mr. Green fears that women may replace men in various industries."

Mrs. Miller spoke for the National Woman's party, sponsor of the equal rights amendment.

MURDER TRIAL RESUMED
Washington, Pa., Feb. 10 (AP)—The trial of Joseph Paul Daugherty, Pittsburgh youth charged with murder in the holdup slaying of Fortunato Doksis, last October 13, resumed Tuesday with one more juror needed to complete a panel. All the eight women and three men tentatively accepted during Monday's session told District Attorney George P. Cummins they would agree to a death penalty, if the evidence so warranted.

Income Tax

No. 34
Deductions for Casualty Losses and Thefts
Losses arising from fires, storms, shipwrecks, or other casualty, or from theft, are allowable deductions in computing net income for Federal income tax purposes. Thus, if a taxpayer's home is destroyed by fire or damaged by flood or storm, or his automobile is wrecked, or if his property is stolen, he may claim a deduction for the loss sustained and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise. The amount of such loss, if incurred in connection with a trade or business, is entered in Schedule H to arrive at the net profit (or loss) shown in item 9 of the return; other losses are entered as item 15 of Deductions in return, Form 1040, and must be explained in Schedule C of the return form.

The intent of the law regarding deductions for casualties, generally, is to allow for losses caused by natural forces. Such losses may be either of a personal or a business nature. To be an allowable deduction, the loss may not arise from the willful act or negligence of the taxpayer. Damage sustained to one's car by collision or accident, for instance, is a deductible loss, unless the damage is due to a willful act or negligence on the part of the taxpayer. Faulty driving would not be classified as negligence, but driving while intoxicated would be so regarded.

Likewise, in the case of claims for loss of property by theft or burglary, it must be established that the property actually was stolen, and not merely mislaid or lost.

In the case of insured property, the amount of recovery through insurance must be taken into account in determining the amount of loss.

The amount of loss allowable in the case of property damaged or destroyed is frequently difficult of determination. A general rule is that the loss is measured by the difference in the value of the property immediately before and immediately after the casualty. The loss on a wrecked car would be the difference between its market value just before the accident and the salvage value after the accident. In the case of trees, or ornamental shrubbery, destroyed by a sleet or snow storm, the measure of the loss is the loss in the value of the property of which they were a part, that is, the reduction in the value of the property arising from the casualty. This may or may not be the same as the value of the particular trees or shrubs destroyed.

In determining the amount of loss, also, sentimental values are excluded, for the reason that such values are not susceptible to measurement. Losses claimed must, in general, be related to market value of the property affected by the casualty. Losses claimed for the destruction, damage, or theft of family portraits, heirlooms, or keepsakes, must be based upon loss of intrinsic value apart from the sentimental value.

A further rule regarding deductions for losses from casualties and thefts is that such losses are deductible only in the year in which they are sustained, even though they may not be discovered until a later year.

A deduction for loss from casualty or theft may be allowed only to the owner of the property with respect to which the loss is sustained.

NAZI PATROL IS CAPTURED

By WILLIAM B. KING
With U. S. Forces on the Northern Tunisian Front, Feb. 8 (Delayed) (AP)—A strong German patrol which ventured toward positions held by United States infantry in this sector southwest of Tunis has been captured to a man.

Like a giant arm scooping up a poker pot, an American outfit swept out into the no man's land of the Goubellat plain and brought back one German officer, 17 men and all their weapons.

The only American casualty was one man, wounded.

The German patrol was discovered on Jan. 31 and an infantry outfit was ordered to go out and capture the patrol at the same time as a British group in a tracked carrier set out from the opposite side of the plain for the same purpose.

Glad To Surrender
"We were racing not only with the Germans who, we thought, might make a run for it but also with the British because we wanted to get there first," said First Lieut. Edward McGregor, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who commanded the Americans.

The British carrier hit German mines and the Americans swept on alone to bag the Germans.

"They must have known they didn't have a chance because they gave up right away," McGregor said.

"One German gave his rifle to the first man to reach him and then started patting his pocket to indicate he had grenades that he wanted to surrender too."

INDUCT WRESTLER

Los Angeles, Feb. 10 (AP)—George Zaharias, 34, former contender for the heavyweight wrestling title and the husband of Mildred (Babe) Didrikson, one of the greatest of women athletes, will be inducted into the Army Feb. 18.

SEEK 100 LEADERS

Pittsburgh, Feb. 10 (AP)—The Navy seeks 100 men here to act as commanding officers of its student groups in Navy college training programs. Candidates must be 35 to 45, college graduates and experienced as managers or executives.
